

BUILDING INFRASTRUCTURE

Collaboratively revised Tribal Infrastructure Fund guidelines are designed to stretch dollars further on shovel-ready infrastructure projects in our native communities

STATE-TRIBAL COLLABORATION

New State-Tribal Leaders Summit format brings State and Tribal leaders together throughout the year to better all communities across New Mexico

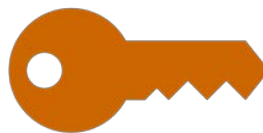

CULTIVATING OUR FUTURE

IAD hosts the annual STEAM Youth Conference with over 40 Tribes and Organizations, strengthening the next generation of New Mexico's leaders

INVESTING IN OUR NATIVE COMMUNITIES

IAD manages more than 240 projects in our native communities, building infrastructure, preserving language, protecting our veterans, and supporting our youth

MAKING STATE PARTNERS

IAD partners and collaborates with other State agencies via the Tribal Liaison program and other initiatives to expand opportunities within our native communities

CAPACITY BUILDING

In FY17 IAD conducted a total of 32 trainings, Reconciliations and workshops for grantees, ensuring that our native communities have the tools they need to succeed
